104 Prague to Berlin, an Elbe River Cruise - May 2-13, 2018

The Elbe River has long been an important delineator of east and west in Europe. Linking two of the most fascinating capitals of Europe—Prague and Berlin—it traverses a land filled with captivating treasures, including cosmopolitan cities and picturesque towns; terraced vineyards and lush orchards; fortress- crowned crags; and the spectacular gorges of “Saxon Switzerland.” This seven-night river cruise aboard the 42-cabin Frederic Chopin embraces the broad sweep of history across this region of Europe from Bohemia to the former East German. Airfare additional - approximately $1800 from San Francisco.

Starting Bid: $3,750 per person

Value: $7,500 per person, double occupancy, Category 2 Main Deck Cabin

Donor: Criterion Travel & Steve Ridgway

105 Cruise New Zealand by Sea - November 29 - December 12, 2018

Auckland to Milford sound aboard the Caledonian Sky. A perennial sell-out destination. New Zealand by Sea explores the country’s lush green islands, from the city of Auckland on the North Island to world-famous Milford Sound on the South Island, aboard the Caledonian Sky, an ideal vessel for accessing New Zealand’s islands, fiords, and craggy coastline. Visit Rotorua, the heartland of Maori culture, and the stunning Te Papa Tongarewa Museum, which brings to life the history of the native people of New Zealand, in Wellington. At the Canterbury Museum’s Hall of Antarctic Discovery in Christchurch, learn about “Operation Deep Freeze.” Travel by motor coach to the Otago Peninsula for a visit to the Royal Albatross Centre to see the only mainland breeding colony of these majestic birds. Land by Zodiac craft on Stewart Island to hear the strange “dingdong” call of the bellbird, and marvel at the sheer granite walls and tumbling waterfalls of Doubtful and Milford Sounds in Fiordland, a region so remote and wild that it remains largely unchanged since the days of Captain Cook. Optional post- tour excursions in Queenstown and Sydney, Australia, are available.

Airfare additional – approximately $1,040 from San Francisco.

Starting Bid: $5,000 per person

Value: $11,990 per person, double occupancy, Category C Superior Deck Cabin

Donor: Criterion Travel & Steve Ridgway

600 - Wine

601 1/2 case 2015 Kroes & Yanovsky Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

Our wines are made locally as a boutique, small production wine. They are not for sale and are only available to business partners and close friends. The inspiration for this wine comes from our love of the fresh and vibrant flavors of the pinot noir wines from Burgundy, France and from the cool Sonoma Coast. We wanted to create a wine that balanced the ripeness of the fruit with a vibrant structure. Our 2015 Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir is made from the highest quality Sonoma Coast grapes from Seppa Vineyards. The wine is handmade using the finest equipment and French oak barrels. The 2015 Sonoma county pinot noir harvest was very special. The grapes from this harvest were ripe, but unusually small, with a high skin to juice ratio. This led to a wine with exceptionally complex flavors that will age well. This was a gift from nature and allowed us to produce our finest wine yet. The 2016 Kroes & Yanovsky Pinot Noir opens with dark cherry flavors that lead to a supple and beautifully layered wine. It is fresh and inviting yet offers complexity and length. It is delicious now, but will age gracefully over the next 10 years.

604 A bottle of Armagnac, 1987 Chateau de Laubade

Château de Laubade was built in 1870 and is today one of France's premier Armagnac property, with seven aging cellars and a single vineyard of 260 sustainably farmed acres. It is located in Sorbets d'Armagnac, in the heart of the prestigious Bas Armagnac district, in Gascony, France. This estate is one of the finest in Armagnac. The 1987 vintage has a bright amber color with a soft and fruity tangerine, and vanilla aroma. Round and supple fruit with toasted oak. Very long finish showing finesse.

606 3 bottles of Rio Crest 2014 Tina Marie Pinot Noir

3 bottles of 2014 Tina Marie Pinot Noir – Double Gold Medal Winner at the 2016 Sonoma County Harvest Fair. Tina Marie expresses beautiful youthful new French oak that supports the black cherry and red raspberry fruit. The uninhibited and bold aromatics are contradicted by the beauty of the delicate Pinot red fruit elements and refined structure. The finish is lengthy, especially for Pinot Noir, and is conveyed through with ample acidity and further enhanced by the core structure the 30% whole-cluster fermentation provides. This is a Pinot Noir of extraordinary class and will age well for 10 Years.

608 3 bottles of Rio Crest 2015 Massalia Syrah

3 bottles of 2015 Massalia Syrah. Massalia's grapes were grown on a hillside vineyard by the Neal family on Dry Creek Road in Sonoma County. Approximately 4% Viognier was added during fermentation to create this Rhône inspired Syrah. The result is luscious with a nose of blackberry and boysenberry, full bodied with lovely cedar and mocha notes on the finish.

610 A bottle of 2015 Kanzler Pinot Noir, Kanzler Family Vineyards Estate Reserve Russian River Valley 2015

The 2015 Russian River Valley Pinot Noir is an aromatic powerhouse. Mixed berries, pronounced cherry, cardamom, lilac, rhubarb, clove, yellow clay and a hint of toasted pine nuts burst from the glass. Seamlessly integrated oak adds a touch of grip to frame the flavors while the acid profile makes for a young, racy, taut wine with incredible depth, and a long satisfying finish.

611 A bottle of 2014 Kanzler Pinot Noir, Kanzler Family Vineyards Estate Reserve Sonoma Coast 2014

The 2014 Estate Reserve Pinot Noir is a classic Kanzler reserve wine. On the nose the wine features an exotic mix of red currant, boysenberry and pomegranate fruit dancing with notes of juniper, fresh pine needles and Chinese Five Spice (anise, cinnamon, cloves, fennel and peppercorns). At first taste, the wine showcases dense, concentrated flavors of raspberry, briary blackberry, and cherry that saturates the palate and remains vibrant and refreshing; begging for another sip. The wine is young and taut but opens and gets broader and denser towards the back of the palate with a long, succulent finish echoing cedar, anise, raspberry and forest floor.
